Attorney Position in Portland

Taylor, McCormack & Frame, an established, general practice law firm with offices in Portland's Old Port and Augusta, is seeking an attorney (ideally with 2-4 years of experience) to join its busy practice. The successful candidate would have the ability and desire to practice across a number of areas, including litigation, employment, commercial and family law. The candidate would demonstrate excellent advocacy skills and the ability to work independently as part of a larger team in a collegial and fast paced environment. This position will involve immediate interaction with the firm's diverse client base, as well as the ability to grow the attorney's own client base within the firm structure. Compensation will be commensurate with experience. The firm also offers a first rate benefits package with health, dental, 401k, parking, and a bonus structure that allows a self-starter to monetize their hard work and successful growth within the firm.
