

Volunteer Lawyers Project

Pro Bono Recruitment Specialist

The Volunteer Lawyers Project (VLP) seeks a staff person to develop and implement a 2 year pro bono recruitment plan to increase lawyer participation in VLP programs, with an anticipated start date of June 1, 2018.

This is a 60% position that will likely include some evening and weekend hours. Statewide travel will be necessary. Working from home will be possible with a minimum of one day per week at the VLP Portland office. Further, this position might work for someone who spends part of the year outside Maine. Retired/retiring attorneys or attorneys getting back into the work force are encouraged to apply. Further details upon application.

Benefits package and travel reimbursement. Annual salary dependent on experience and qualifications.
