Attorneys at Law

Litigation Associate Attorney

Verrill Dana, LLP seeks to hire an associate attorney to join our Portland office as a member of our Litigation Practice Group. Verrill Dana is a full service law firm with more than 130 attorneys conducting a nationwide practice from our offices in Portland and Augusta, Maine; Boston, Massachusetts; Westport, Connecticut; Providence, Rhode Island; and Washington, D.C.

Our Litigation Practice Group is among the most experienced in New England handling a vast array of litigation cases. Our team has tried more than 600 jury and non-jury cases, in addition to several hundred arbitrations, and thousands of mediations and administrative proceedings. The attorneys in the group are devoted to working closely with clients throughout the litigation process to resolve complex legal issues while providing the highest quality of services.

The ideal candidate will have at least two years of experience in private practice litigation, superb legal and academic credentials as well as excellent research, writing and document management skills; superior verbal/interpersonal communication skills with members of the entire litigation team and clients; and an interest in practicing in Maine with a willingness to travel to our other offices in Boston and Westport. Verrill Dana offers a competitive salary and benefits package, as well as an excellent work environment in which our employees can grow and prosper both professionally and personally.
