

Pierce Atwood LLP, a large New England based firm, is seeking an associate with 2-4 years of federal tax experience to join its tax practice. The associate will be based in the firm's Portland, Maine office and collaborate with lawyers across the firm on a wide variety of matters, including debt and tax equity financings, with a focus on renewable energy and project development, tax-exempt public financings involving both governmental and private activity bonds, mergers and acquisitions, and tax structuring. We are seeking candidates with transactional tax experience (preferably in a large law or accounting firm) and excellent academic credentials from law school or a tax LL.M. program.
