

Finance Authority of Maine
Deputy General Counsel

The Finance Authority of Maine (FAME) is a quasi-independent state agency that develops and administers programs related to the financing of both higher education and business in the State of Maine. FAME provides targeted financial tools, information, and solutions to help grow Maine's economy and enable Maine residents to take advantage of opportunities to further their education.

FAME is seeking knowledgeable, driven, and compassionate individual to become part of the Legal Team as our Deputy General Counsel. The primary responsibilities of this position include: Assists General Counsel in the development of effective and comprehensive legal policies and programs and in the monitoring of the Authority's compliance with applicable legal requirements.

This role has primary responsibility for legal oversight and guidance related to FAME's Maine Education Savings Program (NextGen 529). Provides legal review and comments on loan requests and loan documentation. Assists General Counsel to provide legal support on matters affecting each of FAME's Departments and overall operations. May assist with personnel matters and provides counsel to and represents outside Boards and State agencies in general matters, loan review, documentation, and collection, pursuant to FAME contracts to provide such services.

This position is a full-time permanent role with benefits.

The successful candidate will meet the following minimum education, experience, and work requirements:

1. Law degree required in addition to continuing education.
2. Maine Bar admission.
3. Minimum of three (3) to five (5) years in related legal experience. Experience with securities law preferred.
4. Strong interpersonal, communication and management skills.

Individuals who meet these minimum qualifications and are interested in joining a dynamic organization should forward a cover letter and resume to Human Resource Manager, Finance Authority of Maine, PO Box 949, Augusta, ME 04332-0949 or by email at employmentops@famemaine.com. The position will be posted until position is filled.
